THE NEWS.

"Did you hear the ringing slogan from the gallant State of Maine?"

Maine sends greeting to the Chicago gentlemen who recently declared it to be the "sense" of the American people that we should have a cessation of hostilities, in the shape of an increased Union majority. The dispatches state the Union majority will reach nineteen or twenty thousand, as against seventeen thousand last year.

Sherman's communications have been re-established—several blockade runners have been captured—a great fire broke out last night in Cairo—all is reported quiet on the Upper Potomac—a Federal victory was achieved recently in Tennessee, and it is said Fremont's letter of withdrawal has been written and will be made public in due time.

Gold closed at 2.23.

Hon. B. F. Wade, of Ohio.

We read in the scriptures of a certain person who was commanded to go and work in a certain vineyard, but he flatly refused to do so. He was probably one of those blunt, honest, plain-spoken men who have a robust way of saying no when they mean it, and who, having a keen sense of natural justice, are always ready to repent and make reparation for their wrong doing At any rate the account says, he afterwards repented and went into the vineyard to work, and no doubt performed good service.

And so honest old Ben. Wade, of Ohio, after entering his emphatic protest against one of Mr. Lincoln's acts, and refusing, quite as bluntly as did the man spoken of in the gospel, to go and labor in the Union vineyard, has repented, and is now striking sledgehammer blows for Lincoln and Johnson in Pennsylvania. He was no doubt honest in the part he took in the Wade-Davis protest, but seeing he was manifestly in the wrong, he has gone at work, as an honest man should, to repair the damaging effects of his own rash and hasty acts as far as it is possible for him to do. Wade is a host on the stump and will do good service wherever he goes. We hope to see Henry Winter Davis take a similar stand before long.

A LESSON ON ETIQUETTE.—Editors Gazette.—The following incident is worth relating. "And faith I'll print it.

Besides its being "decidedly rich," it may teach those who travel on railroads to be a little more accommodating. The passenger train out from Chicago was crowded and every seat was occupied. A lady with a child in her arms entered the cars at —— station, and looked in vain for a vacant seat. She found one occupied by a lady—pardon me—who sat in one end of the seat and in the other she had deposited sundry hand-boxes, so there remained no room for another person. The lady with the child asked if the seat was occupied. "Yes," was the reply, "it is occupied by me." "Will you please put these things under the seat," pointing to the hand-boxes, "and allow me to occupy part of it," asked the lady. "No," was the rejoinder, "the conductor gave me the seat, and I do not wish to be disturbed." Some further words passed between the two, when a good-natured gentleman, who had been watching the proceedings, left his seat and said to the lady who was standing, "Madam, you can have my seat," then turning to the other he said, "Now, my lady, we will see whether you will occupy this seat alone or not," and he coolly deposited her baggage under the seat and sat down beside her! She "looked daggers," of course, but had nothing to say.

DRAWDE.

SEPT. 10TH, 1864.

A CHANGE OVER THE LEFT.—The opposition journals see great changes going on in the political world, in favor of their principles. On Tuesday morning last, being election day in Vermont, the New York World said:

"A revolution in public sentiment has been quietly going on in this State, which promises to tell heavily against the administration party."

On that day the Green Mountaineers gave a majority of 5,000 greater than last year which indicates the change going on in public sentiment.

ILLINOIS DEMOCRACY.—The Illinois Democracy nominated the following ticket at Springfied the other day:

Governor—James C. Robinson.
Lieut. Governor—S. C. Judd.
Auditor—John Hise.
Secretary of State—Wm. A. Turney.
Superintendent of Public Instruction—John P. Brooks.
Treasurer—Alexander Starne.
Representative in Congress at Large—James C. Allen.

NEW YORK UNION TICKET.—The following is the complete State ticket, as nominated by the New-York Republican Union State Convention, at Syracuse, on Wednesday:

Governor, Reuben E. Fenton.
Lieut. Governor, Thomas G. Alvord.
Canal Commissioner, F. A. Alberger.
State Prison Inspector, D. F. Forrest.
Horace Greeley and John A. King were nominated for presidential electors at large.

THE 40TH REGIMENT will probably reach here on Wednesday. The 39th, 40th and 41st were in Cairo on Saturday. The 40th will probably go to Camp Randall to be mustered out of service.

MARRIAGE OF BELLE BOYD.—On the 25th, a most interesting ceremony of marriage took place at the church on St. James, Piccadilly, London. The bridegroom Lieutenant Samuel Wilde Hardinge, who is about thirty years of age, was an officer in the United States Navy, holding the rank of Lieutenant on board the American war steamer Connecticut. The lady who is about the same age as the gallant bridegroom, was the daughter of General Boyd, of the army of the southern States, who lately expired in prison, having been made prisoner by the Federals. The lady's career is full of the most eventful, heroic and romantic features. Her father, who possessed vast estates in Virginia, early embraced the cause of southern independence, was soon entrusted with command, obtaining the rank of General. His daughter, the bride, enthusiastically embraced the same cause, followed her father to the field, and accompanied him throughout his campaign with the celebrated "Stonewall" Jackson, and on two occasions, heroically, as a modern Joan of Arc, led on the troops to battle; she was, however, in a skirmish captured and made prisoner, and conveyed to Washington where she was imprisoned.

Here she remained 13 months, when she was exchanged for General Cochrane, who had been made prisoner by the Confederates. On her return to the South, she went on board the Greyhound, Confederate steamer, which was captured by the Federal steamer Connecticut while running the blockade. Lieutenant Hardinge was sent on board the Greyhound as a prizemaster. The result was they mutually became enamored and escaped together from the ship, and found their way to this country, the bride having succeeded in drawing her lover from his allegiance to the United States flag, and enlisted his sympathies and support for the South.

It is the intention of Lieutenant Hardinge with his bride to leave this country at the end of September, to run the blockade, and enter the service of the southern States. The marriage cortege was comparatively private, being confined to the bridesmaid and two or three lady friends, the bridegroom being attended by a number of American gentlemen connected with the South. After the conclusion of the ceremony the parties repaired to the Brunswick Hotel, Jermyn street, where the bridegroom has resided since his sojourn in this country, and partook of an excellent dejuner.—European Times.

IN A NUT SHELL.—Wilkes' Spirit of the Times gives in this week's issue in an able editorial, a review of the proceedings of the late Copperhead Convention. One brief but comprehensive sentence contains the pith of the whole matter:

"Its performances, being summed up, amount simply to a demand that the Government be disarmed before the rebels, and that no man be refused the privilege of voting at the forthcoming Presidential election because he is a traitor and refuses an oath of allegiance to the United States."

That is the true meaning of an "armistice with immediate cessation of hostilities," and a "free election or a free fight," for which the McClellan party on a peace platform bawl so loudly.

SOMETHING FOR DOUGLAS DEMOCRATS.—Before the rebellion broke out Senator Douglas, referring to the Southern States, said:

"If they remain in the Union, I will go as far as the Constitution will warrant me in securing their rights; but if they secede, I am in favor of allowing them just as many slaves and just as much slave territory as they can hold at the point of the bayonet."

RATHER WORSTED.—We hear that the Democratic candidate for Congress, Geo. B. Smith, had quite a warm discussion last evening with some soldiers, whom he met on the street, who, strange to say, were not going for "Little Mac." Quite a crowd of soldiers and others finally gathered around and the Democratic champion was subject to a severe cross fire which proved rather too much for him. The soldiers can't be fooled much.—Madison Journal.

CLUB MEETING TO-NIGHT.

Don't forget that the Union Club of Janesville meets to-night. Business of importance is to be transacted, and as the Circuit Court is now in session, there can be no lack of speakers.

It is time, high time the work of the campaign was commenced. We don't to leave a vestige of the copperheads or their ticket.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—An accident to a freight train on the Northwestern Road, last night, near Woodstock, detained the passenger train due here at 2 o'clock A. M., several hours, so that it did not reach here until a late hour this morning.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.—At a meeting of the Union State Committee a few days ago, Col. John G. McMinn, well known as a leading Teacher of this State, was nominated to succeed J. L. Pickard, State School Superintendent, and a notice of his acceptance was received to-day.

TO HOLDERS OF BOUNTY SCRIP.—The City Treasurer informs us that all holders of city bounty scrip issued last January, and due the first of January 1865, can receive their money for principal and interest by calling at his office and presenting the same.

This of course does not apply to the scrip for the $32,000 issued this summer.

JANESVILLE LADIES SEMINARY.—By reference to another column, it will be seen that this popular institution under the direction of Mrs. E. Stella Anderson, commences its fall term to-morrow. Those who have heretofore patronized this school for young ladies, prize it highly for the advantages it offers for the education of girls. It should be most generously supported, and we have no doubt that such will be the case, as Mrs. A. stands very high in the estimation of the community, both as a lady and as a teacher.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The law term of the Circuit Court is now in session in this city. The calander is not a large one, of which the following cases are a part:

A Hyatt Smith vs. C. & N. W. Railway. Argument on demurrer to amended complaint. J. A. Sleeper, Esq., for pl'ff, B. B. Eldredge, Esq., for def't. Demurrer overruled with costs of motion, and leave to answer by the 10th of November next.

Robert Grimshaw ag't Erastus C. Smith et al. Action to set aside conveyance of real estate on the ground that the grantor was insane at the time of the conveyance. Trial in progress. Messrs. B. Dunwiddie & J. A. Sleeper for pl'ff, H. K. Whiton for def't.

THE MASS MEETING.—We beg leave to suggest to our friends who meet to-night to consult with reference to holding a grand mass meeting in this city, that they fix the time on some day during the State Fair, as that will take place nearly as soon as the different towns can get ready. The Fair will attract a large crowd of people from all parts of the county and State who would be glad of an opportunity to get their political faith and strength renewed. It should be held apart from the Fair grounds, at such time as nothing of importance is going on there, as it would be unfair to interfere in any manner with the business of that Society. Distinguished speakers from abroad would be much more likely to be present on such an occasion than at any other time.

JOHNSTON'S NEW FAMILY ATLAS.—We would call the attention of our citizens to this magnificent illustrated work of one hundred steel plate maps. It is unquestionably the very best Atlas ever published, containing every township and village in North America, as well as being a complete Atlas of foreign countries. The letter press is entirely new, and invaluable in its character. It has a complete list of the cities, towns and villages, and post offices in the United States and Territories, arranged in alphabetical order, compiled exclusively for the Atlas. In addition to this list, it has the entire chronological record of the events in the great Rebellion, so arranged that any place of interest can readily be found upon the maps. It also has the complete new Federal census, and an excellent physical and descriptive geography of this and foreign countries.

We regard this Atlas as a standard work of localities all over the globe, but especially of the various places in the United States and Territories. An Atlas of so great merit as this, is of incalculable value in our daily reading at any time, but is is especially of great value at the present time, filled, as it is, with all the various points in the South and West. The maps of the Valley of the Mississippi, particularly of Kentucky and Tennessee, and the map of the vicinity of Richmond and the Peninsula Campaign are worth half the subscription price of the work.

It also contains two ancient maps of special value; one of Palestine, and the other of the Roman Empire, in which the Scripture and classical names of places are retained.

An Atlas like this is a sort of an illustrated Encyclopædia of the world, in which, without a moment's loss of time, we may find almost any species of historical, statistical, or geographical information desired. No student can well dispense with such an aid; and the general reader and man of business will find it a vast fund of information and instruction. In the family it will be valuable in exciting the curiosity of children to such investigations as will be improving, and it will enable parents to answer many questions which the little people are in the habit of asking, to which they too often receive unsatisfactory replies. It should be used as "a ready reference in the solution of the innumerable questions of a geographical character which constantly arise in our daily reading," and its very reasonable price will insure it a welcome reception into our families.

The agent, Mr. King, is here. We trust that the volume will meet the extensive patronage which its merits deserve.

MADISON, August 20, 1864.

I have examined Johnson's New Illustrated Family Atlas, and take pleasure in recommending it as a work of great value to all who desire correctness and minuteness of detail in an atlas. The work contains very much statistical information which will itself commend it. J. L. PICKARD, sept13d2d State Supt. Public Instruction.

ASSEMBLY CONVENTION, 6TH DISTRICT.—The Sixth Assembly District Convention met pursuant to call at the Hanover House in the village of Hanover, Sept. 10th, at 12 o'clock, m.

The Convention was called by E. S. Carpenter. Orrin Guernsey was chosen Chairman and Burr Sprague Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Blanchard, it was resolved that a Committee on Credentials be appointed.

The Chair appointed Wm. Blanchard, Elijah Adams and John Kirkpatrick, as such Committee, who reported the following delegates.

Town of Rock.—Orrin Guernsey. Wm. Blanchard, J. T. Antiesdale.

Newark.—Herrick Bartlett, N. Warren, Chauncey Bartlett.

Avon.—Ben'j. Northup, Rufus Breed, Elijah Adams.

Spring Valley.—Jas. Kirkpatrick, Burr Sprague, Geo. W. Stetson.

Plymouth.—C. H. Cronk. C. Holcomb, R. J. Gilbert.

On motion of Geo. B. Stetson, the report was accepted.

On motion of Mr. Blanchard, it was resolved to proceed to an informal ballot for member of Assembly. Informal ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes cast 15, of which A. C. Douglas received 3, Geo. Bemis 3, E. S. Carpenter 3, and Daniel Mowe 6.

On motion of Geo. W. Stetson, it was resolved to take a formal ballot which resulted as follows: A. C. Douglas 3, Geo. W. Bemis 3, E. S. Carpenter 3, Daniel Mowe 6.

On motion of Mr. Blanchard, the Convention took a recess of five minutes.

When the convention was again called to order by the Chair, Mr. Blanchard moved a second formal ballot, which resulted the same as the first.

Mr. Bemis being present then withdrew his name from the convention.

Mr. Blanchard moved a third formal ballot which resulted as follows. Daniel Mowe 9, E. S. Carpenter 3, A. C. Douglas 3.

The Chair then announced that Daniel Mowe having received a majority of votes would be considered the nominee of the convention.

On motion of E. Adams, Mr. Mowe was declared the unanimous nominee of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Blanchard it was resolved that a District Committee for the ensuing year be appointed.

The Chair appointed as such committee Wm. Blanchard, Elijah Adams C. H. Cronk.

Mr. Tripp then presented Mr. Mowe to the Convention. Mr. Mowe accepted the nomination, thanking the Convention kindly for its action; making a few pertinent remarks on the political issues of the day.

On motion of George W. Stetson it was resolved that the next Convention of this district be held in the village of Oxford.

On motion of James Kirkpatrick, it was resolved that the Secretary be instructed to forward a report of the proceedings of this Convention to the Janesville Gazette for publication.

The Convention then adjourned—the best of feeling prevailing.

FROM WASHINGTON.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The Commercial's Washington special says Mr. Chase denies the insinuation that he does not support Mr. Lincoln. He promises a letter for publication on the subject.

The secessionists denounce McClellan's letter bitterly.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—A gentleman connected with naval affairs says the English blockade runners Eliza and Advance were captured, together with their cargoes which are worth probably half a million dollars. The officers and sailors who seized these prizes will therefore realize handsomely in dividends. The officers of the Advance said she was captured only because of the bad coal on board. The obstruction of the Weldon railroad by our army prevents the supply of a better article to the blockade runners.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—A large portion of the recent loan will be appropriated to the pay of the army.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13th.—The Tribune's Washington special says that information deemed trustworthy is received to the effect that General Fremont has placed his letter of withdrawal in the hands of his friends, who will make it public at the proper time and that before long.

BLOCKADE RUNNERS CAPTURED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Capt. M. Lesson of the U. S. steamer Santiago de Cuba, under date of Sept. 5th, informs the Navy Department that on Saturday while on his way to Hampton roads for coal, he discovered, chased, and captured a blockade runner. She proved to be the English steamer Advance, late Lord Clyde, from Wilmington, N. C. She was a side wheel steamer 2 years old, very fast, and had on board some 410 bales of cotton and some turpentine. Her full cargo cannot be known until it is taken out in Boston.

Rear Admiral Lee in a dispatch dated Beaufort, Sept 7th, says the Elsie ran out of Wilmington on the 4th inst. and was captured next day by the Keystone State and Quaker City. The Elsie was seen and fired upon when she ran out by the Nephan and Brittania, and was chased off by the Santiago de Cuba until lost in darkness. At 10:30 next day she was seen and captured without papers or flag. A shell from the Quaker City exploded in the forehead of the Elsie destroyed about 150 bales of cotton. Part of the cargo was thrown overboard in the chase, and there are now about 250 bales on board the prize which will be sent to Boston. The Elsie is new and of light draught.

HALIFAX, Sept. 12.—The blockade runner Old Dominion arrived here Saturday night, and the City of Petersburg Sunday morning. They have 180 bales of cotton on board for England, said to be in payment of the interest of the rebel loan. She left Wilmington last Sunday night. They report that the pirate Tallahassee was to leave on a plundering cruise on Friday night. They also report 2 more blockade runners were to leave the same night.

The Alexandria, now called the Mary, arrived here Saturday, it is said for repairs. The following blockade runners are also in port: The steamer Little Hattie, repairing; Constance Flaming and Spinly Conder. Besides the above is the steamer Asia, tender to the rebel fleet.

FROM SHERMAN'S DEPARTMENT.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 12th.—The upward train from Bardstown was captured by 16 guerrillas under Magruder, who destroyed the locomotive, burned one car and robbed the passengers.

The Journal says the following dispatches have been received at Gen. Rosseau's headquarters at Nashville:

MURFREESBORO, Sept. 8th—B. H. Polk, A. A. G.: Col. Thomas Gordon, of the 9th Pennsylvania cavalry, with 250 men, surprised, attacked and routed Debrill's camp of 200 men at Readyville, yesterday, killing and wounding many, and capturing 130 prisoners. Our loss is one killed, 5 wounded and 4 missing.

To-day the Railroad was torn up at Bell Buckle. Damage trifling.

The bridge over Stewart's Creek, the only one injured by Wheeler, is rebuilt.

H. H. VAN CLEVE,
Brigadier General.

MURFREESBORO, Sept. 10.—To Maj. B. H. Polk, A. A. G.: The road is in good order from here to Chattanooga. The train left this morning with mail for the army at Atlanta. The rebels are retreating by way of McMinville.

(Signed) H. H. VAN CLEVE,
Brigadier General.

A Pulaski dispatch of the 9th says Gen. Rosseau had concentrated all the forces of Steadman and Granger with his own, and were pursuing Wheeler towards the Tennessee river.

The country between Nashville and the Tennessee river is reported full of straggling bands.

Gen. Milroy has returned to Tullahoma. He telegraphed from there on Saturday that 100 rebel cavalry cut the wires Friday, about 7 miles northwest of Shelbyville, and were going towards Franklin.

Debrill and Williams had united their forces at Woodbury. Williams and Robinson are at Beech Grove going toward McMinville.

Sherman has re-established communication via the Nashville & Chattanooga Railroad. Repairs on the Tennessee & Alabama Railroad will be completed Monday.

Wheeler in the aggregate has destroyed only six miles of track.

Two hundred car loads of subsistence were received in Atlanta Friday.

MAINE ELECTION.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 12.—Samuel Cony, Republican, for Governor, 2374, Howard, Democrat, 1760, Scattering 2,—majority for Cony 972, against 677 last year, a net gain of 295.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 12.—Thirty-nine towns give Cony 14,745, Howard 9,159. In the same towns last year Cony had 14,096, Bradbury 10,931. Union majority this year 5,856, a net gain of 721.

SACO, Me., Sept. 12.—Cony 676, Howard 391.

Bangor gives Cony 1,068, Howard 751. Last year it gave Cony 1,731 and Bradbury 862. The gain for Cony is 184.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 12th, 10 P. M.—Fifty-one towns give Coney 7,175 majority this year, against 6,493 last year, showing a net gain of 684.

Augusta gives Coney 414 majority in six wards.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 13.—Ninety-five towns gives a Union majority of 19,500 to 20,000. The House of Representatives will have about the same as last year when it stood 126 Union to 26 Opposition.

The gubernatorial vote in 1860 which preceded the presidential election, stood Republican 70,030, 52,530 straight Whig and scattering 1,755, being a Rebublican majority of 15,925, some 4,000 short of the probable majority this year.

A violent storm has prevented the sending in of full returns by telegraph.

The amendment to the Constitution permitting the soldiers to vote, will be carried almost unanimously.

FROM CAIRO AND BELOW.

CAIRO, Sept. 12.—A fire broke out at 1 o'clock this morning on Commercial Avenue, between 8th and 9th streets, consuming all the buildings on the west side of the Avenue except Winter's brick block. It then extended to the opposite side and destroyed the United States Hotel, spread up 8th street, consuming Brown's Hotel, Rising Sun and other buildings, also the Commercial, Planters', and Shamrock Houses. Stove, hardware, grocery, dry-goods, clothing, book and other stores were consumed. The losses are large.

The steamer Robt. Burns, from Memphis to Cincinnati, has 164 bales of cotton. She will take on 80 bales here.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 13.—Officers by the dispatch boat which arrived at Cairo yesterday, report that 15,000 rebels are concentrated at the mouth of Red River.

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 12.—The American's special dispatch from Harper's Ferry today says there has been no change in the military situation since my last dispatch. Working parties have re-commenced on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad this morning, and it is expected the road will be in running order soon.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—At the Richmond county Democratic convention Mr. Thos. E. Davis was elected delegate to the Democratic convention, and Dr. Hancourt alternate.

NOW READY—PRICE 75 Cents.
Peoples' Edition of Parton's
Gen. Butler in New Orleans.
One Volume, Octavo, Paper, Price 75c.

With the view of meeting the extensive popular demand for this remarkable book, this edition has been prepared. The page and type are smaller to those of Harper's Magazine. Some of the less important documents are omitted, and in some instances the account has been condensed, yet never so as to interfere with the interest or completeness of the story.

Unquestionably this book stands pre-eminent in interest among all yet occasioned by the rebellion. Its subject and author combine to render it fascinating. Fifteen editions have been called for as fast as they could be printed. It has been most warmly commended by the loyal press of the country, and scarcely less so by a portion at least of the English press, by whom it is acknowledged to be a complete vindication of Gen. Butler from the malicious charges which envy and hatred have brought against him.

It contains an anecdotal sketch of Gen. Butler's brilliant and remarkable career at the bar of Massachusetts; a history of the secret movements in the Charleston Convention; conversations between Gen. Butler and the leading secessionists at Washington in December, 1860; the real plans of the traitors; Gen. Butler invited to join them; his advice to Buchanan; his efforts in preparing Massachusetts for war; the celebrated march, via. Annapolis, to Washington; collision with Gen. 1864 to June 30	5,618	88,784 17	60,150 30

It is gratifying to the officers, as it must be pleasing to the members, to exhibit the foregoing evidence of the rapid increase of business and the present condition of the Company. The public faith, at first awakened by our able and untiring agents, and confirmed by the unswerving fidelity of the Company to its professions, has matured into a confidence which cannot be shaken by chicanian opponents or jealous rivals.

The citizens of this State have built up a home company which gives them ample protection, and precludes the necessity of sending their money abroad for a security which they give to one another. It needs no brazen trumpet to sound its praise, the hundreds to whom property and home have been restored by its beneficence, and its immense and rapidly increasing business, are at once evidence of its guardianship and popularity.

Its best eulogium is its large home endorsement, and where it is most known it is in vain for others to solicit the risks which come within its rules. Its present unimpaired capital is considerably over $500,000, consisting of premium notes and cash assets, and while it combines security and economy in a degree hardly paralleled, it is believed that no mutual fire insurance company in the United States presents as large a capital and a business as great.

by a new method, and with remedies that are eminently successful in the above class of chronic diseases.

The thinking and enlightened portion of the community will appreciate the great advantage of a permanent and reliable Institute for the cure of chronic diseases that usually baffle the skill of the general practitioner.

Catarrh, that great promoting cause of Consumption, is the Northwest, always gives way upon application of the new remedies. Dr. Hale has never encountered a case of this disease he could not cure. The present season is very favorable for applying proper remedies; delays are dangerous. Your case may be cured this month, not next, to-day, not to-morrow.

All who are suffering from any of the diseases Dr. Hale makes a speciality in treating, should at least call and investigate the new system for themselves. No person of good sense and sound judgment will, without full and careful investigation, denounce as "humbug" that which claims to possess merit.

Dr. Hale takes pleasure in referring to the following responsible parties, citizens of Janesville, who can speak knowingly as to the efficacy of Dr. Hale's treatment, not to mention hundreds of others in the Northwest that have been cured:

M. Schuyler, proprietor of the Schuyler House; Dewitt Davis, N. G. Kniston, D. R. Stone, F. J. Tupper, Ellis Doty, Job printer, J. D. Hayner, W. H. Mann, E. R. Beckley, N. Rowe, John Kerr, J. F. Drake, Wm. Hyzer, Mrs. W. W. Wheeler, Mrs. C. J. Cheney, Miss Belle Shattuck, Miss N. Wiley.

SPEECH OF MR. SEWARD AT AUBURN, NEW YORK, SEPT. 3, 1864.

The Victory at Atlanta—The Presidential Election—The Chicago Convention—The Slavery Question.

MY DEAR FRIENDS: It is so that I like to see you come marching to the time of national airs, under the folds of the old national flag. I thank you for this hospitable and patriotic welcome. It proves that though you deal rigorously with your public servants, exacting reasons for their policy, energy in their conduct of affairs, and explanations for failures and disappointments in their administration, yet you are nevertheless just, because you willingly allow them to rejoice with you, when you have successes, victories and triumphs to celebrate. The news that brings us together is authentic. (A voice, "do you think it is reliable?") Yes. Here is a telegram which I received this morning from the Secretary of War:

"Van Duzer reports that Sherman's advance entered Atlanta about noon to-day. Particulars not yet received.

E. M. STANTON."

[Three cheers were given for Atlanta.] Now this news comes in a good shape. It is pleasant to have a grand result at the first, and it protracts the interest of the thing to have particulars coming in afterwards. [Yes, yes, we can wait for the particulars.]

This victory comes in the right connection. It falls in with the echoes of the capture of Forts Gaines and Morgan, which I understand to be the particulars of Farragut's glorious naval battle, in the Bay of Mobile, a battle equaled by no other in American History, but the naval achievements of the same veteran Admiral at New Orleans and Port Hudson, and all those have no parallel in naval warfare, but the battles of the Nile and Trafalgar. [A voice, "I wish we were all Farraguts."] Well, my friend, I knew the Admiral well, and I confess we all can't be Farraguts. Indeed very few of us can. But we may take this comfort ourselves, that as a whole people, we can appreciate the veterans. We can also appreciate Sherman, who has performed the most successful and splendid march through a mountainous and hostile country recorded in modern history, and in doing this we show ourselves inferior in virtue to no other nation. By the way, everybody admired Farragut's heroism is climbing to the topmost to direct the battle. But there was another "particular" of that contest that no less forcibly illustrates his heroic character.

"Admiral," said one of his officers, the night before the battle, "won't you consent to give Jack a glass of grog in the morning—not enough to make him drunk, but just enough to make him fight cheerfully." "Well," replied the Admiral, "I have been to sea considerable, and have seen a battle or two, but I never found that I wanted rum to enable me to do my duty: I will order two cups of coffee to each man, at two o'clock and at eight o'clock. I will pipe all hands to breakfast in Mobile Bay." (Hurrah for Farragut.) And he did give Jack the coffee, and he then went up to the mast-head and did it.

The victory at Atlanta comes at the right place. The rebellious district is in the shape of an egg. It presents equal resistance on its whole surface. But if you could only break the shell at either of the two ends, Richmond and Atlanta, the whole must crumble to pieces. While Sherman under Grant has been striking the big end, Meade under Grant has been striking just as hard blows upon the lesser end. The whole shell will now be easily crushed, for it has grown brittle, with the exhaustion of vitality within.

VOLUNTEERS.

This glorious victory comes in good time for another reason. Just now we are calling upon you for three hundred thousand more volunteers, if you will—drafted men if we must, to end the war. You were getting a little tired of long delays and disappointed expectation. In Indiana a portion of the people instigated by rebel plotters, at the Clifton House, in Canada, were importing British revolvers in boxes which passed the Custom House as stationary, under pretense of arming to defend themselves, but really to resist the draft and bring the Government down to ruin, through a subordinate and auxiliary civil war. True no arms have been imported here. Yet delegates went out from among you, and sat down in council at Chicago with those Indiana conspirators, and agreed with them not only that that importation of arms should be defended in the election canvass, but also to demand the cessation of the war, upon the ground that success in restoring the Union is unattainable. Already, under the influence of the cheering news from Atlanta, all this discontent and this despondency have disappeared. We shall have no draft, because the army is being reinforced at the rate of five or ten thousand men per day by volunteers. [Cheers for the volunteers.]

THE ARMY AND THE NAVY.

May I not add that this victory at Atlanta comes in good time as the victory in Mobile Bay does, to vindicate the wisdom and the energy of the war administration. Farragut's fleet did not make itself, nor did he make it. It was prepared by the Secretary of the Navy, and he that shall record the history of this war truthfully, and impartially, will write that since the days of Carnot, no man has organized war with ability equal to that of Stanton. [Cheers for Stanton, cheers for the Secretary of the Navy.]

GRUMBLERS.

But auspicious as the occasion is, it has nevertheless failed to bring out some whom we might have expected here. Why are they not here to rejoice in the victories that will thrill the hearts of the lovers of freedom throughout the world. Alas, that it must be confessed, it is party spirit that holds them aloof. All of them are partisans. Some are Republicans, who cannot rejoice in the national victories, because this war, for the relief of the nation, is not in all respects conducted according to their own peculiar radical ideas and theories. They want guarantees for swift, and universal, and complete emancipation, or they do not want the nation saved. Others stay away because they want to be assured that in coming out of the revolutionary storm the ship of state will be found in exactly the same condition as when the tempest assailed it; or they do not want the ship saved at all, as if anybody could give such guarantees in the name of a people of thirty million. Others are Democrats. They received from their Father the axiom that only Democrats could save the country; and they must save it by Democratic formulas and combinations which the progress of age has forever exploded. They cannot come up to celebrate achievements which condemn their narrow and hereditary bigotry.

Others of both the Republican and Democratic parties, are willing that the nation shall be saved, provided it is done by some one of their chosen and idolized chiefs, which chief they mutually denounce and revile. They cannot honor Grant, and Sherman, and Farragut, and Porter, because by such homage, they fear that Fremont and McClellan's fame may be eclipsed.

Nevertheless, there are enough here of the right sort. (Yes—that's true)—enough of men who were once Republicans, but who, taking that word in a partisan sense, are Republicans no longer, and men who were once Democrats, but who, taking the word in its narrow application, are Democrats no longer, all of whom are now Union men, because they found out at the beginning of this tremendous civil war, or at some period in its progress, that no man, no party, no formula, no creed, could save the Union, but that the people could save it, and they could save it only by ceasing to become partisans, and becoming patriots and Union men. [Cheers for the Union.]

Yes, my friends, when this war shall be ended in the restoration of the Union, no man then living will exult in the recollection that during its continuance he was either a Radical or Conservative, a Republican or a Democrat, but every man will claim to have been throughout an unreserved and unconditional Union man.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

But why should party spirit, especially at this juncture, divide the American People. And why should I, a member of the Executive Administration, allude to it on such an occasion as this? The answer is at hand. The Constitution of our country commands that Administration to surrender its powers to the People, and the People to designate Agents to assume and exercise them four years. You receive the Executive Government in a condition very different and highly improved. We found it practically expelled from the whole country south of the Delaware, and Ohio and the Missouri, with the most of the army and navy betrayed or fallen into the hands of insurgents, and new and treasonable Confederacy, with the indirect but effective co-operation of foreign powers, establishing itself in the Gulf of Mexico. We cheerfully give the Government back to you, with large and conquering armies, and a triumphant navy, with the hateful Confederacy falling into pieces, and the rebellious States, one after another, returning to their allegiance.

Regarding myself now, therefore, not as a Secretary, but simply as one of the people, I, like you, am called by my vote, to determine into whose hands the precious trust shall now be confided. We might wish to avoid, or at least to postpone that duty until the present fearful crisis is passed. But it cannot and ought not to be postponed or adjourned. It is a Constitutional trial and the nation must go through it, deliberately and bravely.

I shall, therefore, cheerfully submit, for your consideration, the course which I have concluded to adopt and the reason for it.

First, I beg you to remember, that the present is no common or customary Presidential election. It occurs in the midst of civil war, arising out of a disputed succession to the Executive power. Disputed successions are the most frequent causes of civil war, not only in Republics but even in Monarchies. A dispute about the succession of the President, periodically begets an abortive or a real revolution in each one of the Spanish and American Republics. So the disputed succession of the Spanish throne, begot that memorable thirty years' war, which convulsed all Europe. A dispute whether Juarez was the lawful President, brought on the present civil war, with the consequence of French intervention in Mexico. A dispute whether the present King of Denmark, who succeeded to the throne last winter, is lawful heir to the Duchies of Schleswig and Holstein, brought about the civil war in that country, which, through German intervention, has just now ended with the dismemberment of the Danish kingdom. It is remarkable, also, that civil wars produced by disputed successions invariably begins with resistance by some one or more of the States or provinces which constitute the Kingdom, Empire or Republic which is disturbed. It was so with the United States of Mexico. It was so with the United States of Columbia, and the case was the same in the United States of Venezuela. Now, it is certain that in 1860 we elected Abraham Lincoln, lawfully and constitutionally, to be President by the whole of the United States of America. Seven of the States immediately thereon rushed into disunion, and summoning eight more to their alliance, they set up a Revolutionary Government. They levied war against us, to effect a separation and establish a distinct sovereignty and independence.

We accepted the war in defense of the Union. The only grievance of the insurgents was that their choice of John C. Breckinridge for President, was constitutionally overruled in the election of Lincoln. They rejected Lincoln and set up a usurper. The Executive power of the United States, now therefore by force practically suspended, between that usurper Jefferson Davis, and that constitutional President Abraham Lincoln. The war is waged by the usurper to expel that constitutional President from the Capitol, which in some sort is constantly held in seige, and to conquer the States which loyally adhere to him. The war is maintained on our side, to suppress the usurper, and to bring the insurgent States back, under the authority of the constitutional President. The war is at its crisis. It is clear therefore that we are fighting to make Abraham Lincoln President of the whole United States, under the election of 1860, to continue until the 4th of March, 1865. In voting for a President of the United States can we wisely or safely vote out the identical person whom with force and arms we are fighting into the Presidency? (No, no.) You justly say no. It would be nothing less than to give up the very object of the war at the ballot-box. The moral strength makes our loyal position impregnable, would pass from us, and when that moral strength has passed away, material forces are no longer effective, or even available. By such a proceeding we shall have agreed with the enemy, and shall have given him the victory. But in that agreement the Constitution and the Union will have perished, because when it shall have once been proved that a minority can by force or circumvention, defeat the full accession of a constitutionally chosen President, no President, thereafter, though elected by over so large a majority, can hope to exercise the Executive powers unopposed throughout the whole country. One of two things must follow that fatal error. Either a contest between your newly elected compromise President, and the same usurper, in which the usurper must prevail, or else a combination between them through which the usurper or his successor, subverting your Constitution and substituting his own, will become President, King or Emperor of the United States without foreign aid, if he can, with foreign intervention if necessary. (That's so.) To be sure it is so; nothing is more certain than that either the United States and their Constitutional President, or the so called Confederate States and their usurping President, must rule within the limits of this Republic. I therefore regard the pending Presidential election, as involving the question whether hereafter we shall have a Constitution and a country left us. How shall we vote then to save our country from this fearful danger? (Vote Lincoln in again.) You have hit it exactly, my friend. We must vote Lincoln in again and fight him in at the same time. If we do this the rebellion will perish and leave no root. If we do otherwise, have only the alternatives of acquiescence in a perpetual usurpation, or of entering an endless succession of social or civil wars. Upon these grounds, entirely irrespective of platform and candidate, I consider the recommendations of the Constitution at Chicago, as tending to subvert the Republic. (It's so, that's a fact.)

It will seem a hard thing when I imply that a party, like the Democratic party, can either meditate or blindly adopt measures to overthrow the Republic. All experience, however, shows that it is by the malice or the madness of great parties that free States have been brought down to destruction. You often hear alarms that a party in power are subverting the State, and it often happens so. But nine times out of ten it is a party out of power that in its impatience or its ambition overthrows a Republic.

The Democratic party, of course leaving off the loyal Union Democrats, opposed the election of Abraham Lincoln in 1860. In doing so they divided and organized in three columns. One a treasonable column of State Rights, disunion Democrats under Breckenridge. A second, a loyal Northern party under Douglas. The third a conciliatory flying column under Bell, who has since joined the insurgents. We therefore invited the two loyal columns to combine with the Republican to oppose the disunion Democratic column. They declined.

On the eve of the election in 1860, I told the followers of Douglas and of Bell, that when the election should have closed, they would find they had inadvertently favored disunion and rebellion. They persisted, and the attempted revolution came. Disunion then presented itself, in the practical form of preventing Abraham Lincoln from assuming the Executive authority. Thus the Democratic party produced that calamity, the Southern Democrats acting from design, the Northern Democrats passive through inadvertance. The disputed succession still remains unadjusted. A new election has come on. For a time the Northern Democrats, with notable exceptions, gave a more or less liberal support to the Government, against the Democratic insurgents of the South.

THE REBELS IN 1860 AND IN 1864.

But the same Democratic forces which figured in the election of 1860, now appear in the field with positions and policy unchanged since that time, as I think, except for the worse. The Southern Democracy is still in arms under the usurper at Richmond. The Douglas and Bell columns consolidated are found at Chicago, and all three of the parties are compassing the rejection of the Constitutional President of the United States. They agree not only in this attempt, but they assign the same reasons for it—namely, that Abraham Lincoln is a tyrant.

They agree, also, that the real usurper at Richmond is blameless and pure—at least, the Richmond Democracy affirm it and the Chicago Democracy do not gainsay it. To me, therefore, the Democracy at Richmond and the Democracy at Chicago, like Cæsar and Pompey, seem to retain all their original family resemblance. They are very much alike—especially Pompey. But it is not in mere externals that their similarity lies.

They talk very much alike, as I have already shown you. When you consider that among the Democrats at Chicago, the Indiana Democrats were present, who have imported arms to resist the National authority, and defeat the National laws, and that all the Democrats there assembled agreed to justify that proceeding, I think you will agree with me that the Richmond Democrats and the Chicago Democrats have lately come to act very much alike.

[CONCLUDED TO-MORROW.]

STOP, IMPORTATIONS.—Movements are now on foot in the loyal States, to stop importation of silks, jewelry, &c. Why not include wines and liquors? Are our patriotic ladies aware that more gold is paid to Europe for these articles than there is paid for silks and satins, and these articles can be replaced so well with our own pure native wines? We called in a house on River street not long ago, and in the wine cellar we tasted of strawberry, blackberry, cherry, and other wines, which to us tasted far ahead of the imported ports, sherries, &c.

In the June number of Harper's Monthly may be found a highly interesting treatise upon wine making. "The production of wine," says the writer, "is the most important branch of agricultural industry on earth; at all events there are only to be compared with it, the culture of rice which forms the staple food of nearly one-third of the human race.

Europe is the main seat of wine culture producing a little more than three thousand million gallons a year, which, estimating the average value at place of production, is worth, on the spot, more than eight hundred millions of dollars in gold.

Messrs. Bennett Pieters & Co., of Chicago, have for the past three years been making extensive preparations for the manufacture of home-made wines. They have the most extensive arrangements with fruit growers, and in the proper season they gather strawberries, cherries, peaches blackberries, raspberries, &c., &c., to an enormous amount. Their wines far excel many of the imported wines both in purity and exhilirating effects. Many of these home-made wines are being largely adulterated. Buy none but those with the unmistakable label of Bennett, Pieters & Co. These gentlemen are men of high respectability, and guarantee every article from their house pure and unadulterated.

DIARRHŒA AND DYSENTERY.

We have examined a great number of letters from some of the most prominent citizens of Cincinnati and Covington, etc., speaking in the highest terms of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture for the cure of diarrhœa and dysentery. The letters are too long to publish. Mr. Woods, of Covington, says he was pronounced incurable by the best doctors in Cincinnati, and one bottle of Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture effected a permanent cure after suffering for months with the worst form of diarrhœa and dysentery.

Another says he was discharged from the United States service after suffering in the hospital for eight months as incurable, and as a last resource tried Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. He got well directly and has now entered the army again in good health. One man writes he has cured seven or eight very bad cases of diarrhœa and dysentery in the barracks he was in with one bottle of this valuable medicine. In fact we could fill half our paper with similar items from these letters. Why does not our government secure this valuable preparation? Our army ought to be supplied with it. It is but a short time since one of our men lay in a very low condition at one of our Cincinnati Hospitals, his wife was sent for. The doctors considered his case an hopeless case. She, however, gave him Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture, and in three weeks he was able to return home with his wife to New Richmond, O. All these cases right at home speak for themselves. We hope all the soldiers will put a bottle of it in their knapsacks. It may save them or some of their comrades. It is for sale by Druggists at 65 cents per bottle.

WISCONSIN STATE FAIR

A. P. DIEHL,

the celebrated PYROTECHNIST from Cincinnati, respectfully informs the citizens of Janesville and surrounding country, that he will give

TWO GRAND DISPLAYS

—OF—

FIRE WORKS!

during the Fair, on

Wednesday and Thursday Even'gs,

September 27th and 28th,

at his capacious pavilion, which will comfortably contain

15,000 PEOPLE!

Mr. Diehl will display in these exhibitions all the late improvement in the Pyrotechnic Art. The great feature of these exhibitions will be a representation of the late Naval Battle between the Kearsarge and Alabama!

in the British Channel. These vessels are rigged in regular Man-of-war style, and will each fire about during the engagement, and will close with the blowing up and sinking of the Alabama.

TWENTY BROADSIDES

There will also be thrown into the air a number of 8-Inch Artificial Shells, in true battle style, exploding at a great altitude and presenting one of the most magnificent scenes ever beheld.

For particulars see bills of the day.

Persons unacquainted with the Melodeon and its history, will bear in mind that we are the pioneers and leading manufacturers, not only in the United States, but in the world. We commenced the manufacture of Melodeons in the fall of the year 1847, and since that time have finished and sold

THIRTY THOUSAND!

These instruments are now in use mostly in the United States and Canada, also in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, and the West Indies, and from all these quarters we have the most flattering testimonials of the high estimation in which they are held. At all Industrial Exhibitions, they have invariably been whenever exhibiting in competition with others. We shall take pleasure in forwarding by mail (at our own expense) our Illustrated Catalogue, in which every instrument we manufacture, is fully described and illustrated by elegant engravings.

AWARDED THE HIGHEST PREMIUM!

☞ All Melodeons of our manufacture, either sold by us or dealers in any part of the United States or Canada, are warranted to be perfect in every respect, and should any repairs be necessary before the expiration of five years from the date of sale, we hold ourselves ready and willing to make the same free of charge, provided the injury is not caused by accident or design.

CAUTION.

We daily see advertisements of some new reed instrument, with strange name,) purporting to be superior to Melodeons and School Organs. A new exterior and a new name will naturally attract attention; but the public will bear in mind that all Reed Instruments, now manufactured in the United States and Canada, are, as near as they can be made without infringing our patents, copies of our own.

☞ Agents for the sale of our Melodeons can be found in all the principal towns of the United States and Canada. Address either

GOTTSCHALK ON KNABE.

[Translated from the French.]

After having played on the Piano of Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not to bear testimony to their qualities, which have acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Pianos of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities. The bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes sweet, clear and harmoniously mellow, (chrystaline,) and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal if not superior to the best manufactured in Europe or this country by the most celebrated makers.

Signed, L. M. GOTTSCHALK.

R. J. ROBERTS'

Spring Steel Drill-Eyed

NEEDLES!!

TO THE LADIES.

We most respectfully solicit your kind attention for a moment to a matter which, though apparently trifling, is nevertheless of considerable importance to your convenience, pleasure and comfort. Every lady, no matter what her position in society, whether it be one of ease and affluence, or one of toil and poverty, has occasion almost daily to ply the busy needle; how and where to procure needles of perfect quality, is, therefore, a question of some interest to you all. The Needles known as "R. J. Roberts" are of this description. They are made of

Extra Refined Swedish Steel,

are tempered by a new and improved process, which render them uniform, smooth, bright, strong and pliable; their eyes are helixed and silver burnished; their points are hard, sharp and gently tapering. In addition to these advantages, they are put up in which renders them much more convenient. In nearly all the large cities of Europe and America their sale is extensive, and their reputation unequaled. They will not easily break nor bend; they will not chafe the thread; they will not turn up nor break off at the points. Each of them is warranted to sew in long while, easily and well.

TRY THEM, LADIES, and they will win you to be their friends.

Janesville Daily Gazette.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 13, 1864.

THE STEWART COOK STOVE—Unparalleled Feat in Baking.—Several days ago, Mr. N. B. Harwood, the agent in this city of the celebrated Stewart Cook Stove, advertised a challenge of $1000 that the stove would perform 50 per cent. more baking with the same amount of fuel, than any other that could be trotted out against it. The trial came off yesterday. Mr. E. Hosford, the general agent of the stove, acted as cook, and in the presence of several gentlemen, commenced the trial.

Two elm sticks, containing in all about 160 cubic inches of wood, were placed in the fire box, and started by chips. The bread in pans containing 40 "pound loaves," was then placed in and on the stove, and in 30 minutes drawn forth, done to a delicious puffy richness equal to any baked in a brick oven. We never tasted better bread anywhere.

The fire box was then examined, and the two sticks were found not half consumed. Mr. Hosford offered an additional $1000 that he could bake 60 more loaves without renewing it, and actually did put in 20 more and a roast of meat, which were baked sweet and nice, and afterwards devoured with great gusto by the lookers on.

Such surprising feats as this must certainly make the Stewart Stove the pet of every household. A number of our citizens have bought them within a year and declare they can almost save their cost in a year, in the reduced quantity of fuel burned, alone, while the worst vexation of bad bread and poor cookery is also avoided. The writer of this item has one in use in his own family, and considers its cost half saved in less than a year's use.

There will be a trial and challenge of the same nature of the above, at the store of D. H. Davy & Co., Minneapolis to-day at two o'clock. Ladies and housekeepers are invited to attend.—St. Paul Press, August 20th. sept10d3daw3w.

AND CAN'T MAKE DRUNKARDS,

but is the best tonic in the world.

READ WHO SAYS SO:

From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.
From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.
From the Hon. Thomas B. Florence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1st, 1864.
Gentlemen:—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters. During a long and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.
Truly your friend, THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John B. Withersham, Esq., firm of Withersham and Hutchinson, the celebrated manufacturers of Fancy Iron Works, 259 Canal street:
I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz, that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhoea.
During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.
I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and, when I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.
Truly yours, JOHN B. WITHERSHAM.
New York, Feb. 2, 1864.

From Julius Lee, Esq., firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chestnut street, Philadelphia,
February 8th, 1864.
Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else had failed.
Yours truly, JULIUS LEE.

From the Hon. Jacob Broom.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7th, 1863.
Gentlemen:—In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequalled tonic and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.
Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, 1707 Spruce.

From Rev. W. D. Seigfried, Pastor of the 12th Baptist Church:
PHILADELPHIA, December 26th, 1863.
Messrs. Jones & Evans—Gentlemen: I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action not only upon the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.
Very respectfully yours, W. D. SEIGRIED,
No. 254 Shackamaxon Street.

From the Rev. Thos. Winter, D. D., Pastor of Roxbury Baptist Church:
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters. I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.
Respectfully yours, E. WINTER,
Roxborough, Pa.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks county, Pa.
Dr. C. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's German Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.
Yours, with respect, J. S. HERMAN.

Beware of Counterfeits.

STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.
STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors of this justly esteemed and well-known brand of Stomach Bitters, do not deem it necessary, in order to give their goods a fictitious, or even an enhanced value, to take a fling at all other Bitters, and proclaim in small capitals that they are worthless. Our Bitters do not need this, as we place them before the public on their merits, and invite your careful attention to the goods we allow our brand upon, knowing as we do so, that our reputation is at stake. The name, "Red Jacket," is taken from the original compound by the native child of the forrest, and with the addition of a few herbs by Dr. Chapin, made more agreeable to the taste, they have now a peculiarly healthy, soothing and recuperative influence, especially for the patient rising from the bed of sickness, loss of appetite, distress after eating, dizziness, and all diseases arising from Torpid Liver or Indigestion.
They strengthen and invigorate the system.
They are unequaled for general debility.
They are a sure cure for dyspepsia.
They give a good and healthy appetite.
They assist digestion.
They are the best stimulant in existence.
They are a sure preventive of Fever and Ague.
They relieve constipation.
They cure Nervous Headache.
They are perfectly pure and palatable.
They make the debilitated strong, and restore to strength the exhausted.
Aged persons and delicate females will find they can save large doctor's bills by the use of these Bitters.

NEW MUSIC BOOK FOR CHOIRS.

The Key-Note,

By William B. Bradbury.

This work is the result of Mr. Bradbury's collecting and composing for several years, and is everywhere being received with the greatest favor by the most experienced singers and musicians. The extent of Mr. Bradbury's popularity may be judged from the fact that of his last book, the Jubilee, over 200,000 have been sold, and of his entire works, more than 2,000,000.

In addition to its rich collection of Tunes and Anthems, the KEY-NOTE has a great variety of exercises and light Glee Choruses, suited to social or Singing School use, and in every particular it is believed the lovers of good music at church and at home will find the Key-Note just adapted to their wants. PLOWS! PLOWS! PLOWS!

THE CELEBRATED WROUGHT IRON

Skeleton Frame Plow,

Manufactured by

Wm. B. Young & Co., Chicago, Ill.

The new wrought iron skeleton frame of our plows lightens the plow some ten pounds, and is the most scientific arrangement of parts to give strength and lightness combined, ever yet invented. This new feature is attracting much attention.

The model of the plow is such that it will scour readily in any and all soils. Will run with very light draft, and ease to the plowman, covering all weeds, stubble and rubbish completely.

All our plows are constructed of the very best material that can be bought.

Each one is pointed with Cast Steel and hardened, and the workmanship of each part will be thoroughly done.

The finish and polish of every plow is not equalled by any other manufacturer.

We aim to supply the best plow in the market, the most durable, the best made, the best finished, and the best running plow

Every plow we warrant fully to be perfect in construction, and to scour freely.

Farmers are requested to call and see the plow before purchasing elsewhere. H. T. SELBY, Patent Medicines.

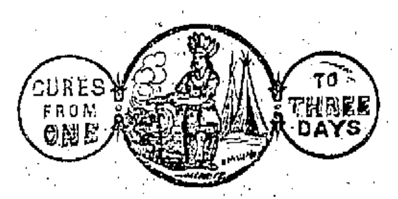
Good News for the Unfortunate!

THE LONG SOUGHT FOR

DISCOVERED AT LAST.



CHEROKEE REMEDY

AND

CHEROKEE INJECTION!

Compounded from Roots, Barks & Leaves.

CHEROKEE REMEDY, the great Indian Diuretic cures all diseases of the urinary organs.

It is prepared in a highly concentrated form, the dose only being from one to two teaspoonfuls three times per day.

It is diuretic and alterative in its action; purifying and cleansing the blood, causing it to flow in all of its original purity and vigor; thus removing from the system all pernicious causes which have induced disease.

CHEROKEE INJECTION is intended as an ally or assistant to the Cherokee Remedy, and should be used in conjunction with that medicine in all cases of Gleet, Gonorrhea, Fluor Albus. Its effects are healing, soothing and demulcent, removing all scalding, heat and pain, instead of the burning and almost unendurable pain that is experienced with nearly all the cheap quack injections.

By the use of the CHEROKEE REMEDY and CHEROKEE INJECTION—the two medicines at the same time—all improper discharges are removed, and the weakened organs are speedily restored to full vigor and strength.

Price, Cherokee Remedy, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

Price, Cherokee Injection, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5.

Sent by Express to any address on receipt of price.

For full particulars get our pamphlet from any drug store in the country, or write us and we will mail free to any address, a full treatise.

THE GREAT

INDIAN MEDICINE!

COMPOUNDED FROM

ROOTS, BARKS, AND LEAVES.

CHEROKEE CURE!

This medicine is a simple vegetable extract, and one on which all can rely, as it has been used in our practice for many years, and with thousands treated, it has not failed in a single instance. Its curative powers have been sufficient to gain victory over the most stubborn case.

To those who have trifled with their constitution, until they think themselves beyond the reach of medical aid, we would say, DESPAIR NOT! the CHEROKEE CURE will restore you to health and vigor, and after all quack doctors have failed!

Price, $2 per bottle, or three bottles for $5, and forwarded by Express to all parts of the world.

For full particulars get a Circular from any Drug Store in the country, or write to the agent, who will mail free to any one desiring the same, a full treatise, in pamphlet form.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

cures such in all their stages, at little expense: little or no change of diet; no inconvenience, and no exposure.

It causes frequent desire and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, and allaying inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases.

Thousands upon thousands who have been the Victims of Quacks,

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form.

E

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu

for all affections and diseases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. Diseases of these organs require the aid of a Diuretic. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is and it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

L

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!

Helmbold's highly concentrated compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla Syphilis

This is an affection of the blood, and attacks the sexual organs, linings of the nose, ears, throat, windpipe, and other mucuous surfaces, making its appearance in the form of ulcers. Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and removes all scaly eruptions of the skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its blood-purifying properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation or Sarsaparilla.

M

an excellent lotion for diseases of a syphilitic nature, and as an injection in diseases of the urinary organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended. Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines.

Certificates of cures, from three to twenty years standing, with names known to science and fame.
